

TREASURE HUNTING

ON THE NORTHSORE

by Hilary Creamer

If the kitchen is the heart of the home, then my home is a happy place. The shelves are filled with bold-colored and whimsically patterned vintage dinnerware, casserole dishes and mixing bowls. Lately, I've been hunting for vintage (food-safe) souvenir dishes paired with road map placemats and vintage postcards for place settings for a travel-themed dinner party. What food will be served? Let's face facts—we have the best cuisine in the world right here at home! That is why I search local antique shops for cookbooks from community-based organizations and churches. And no kitchen is complete without a cheerful, vintage apron!

Shop small. Shop local. Shop often.

Happy hunting and cooking!

♥ Hilary
